The President's Message

Dear Members:

The General Federation's convention theme for 1951 was impressive and challenging. The familiar words, "A New Birth of Freedom", are fraught with just as much meaning for us today as when Lincoln uttered the immortal phrase.

May we go beyond the call for "A New Birth of Freedom" and ask ourselves the question, "Is it freedom that needs to be reborn or is it that we need to be awakened to the freedom that is already ours?" We need to make a new evaluation of our freedom based on the conviction that it is spiritual power alone that brings real freedom. We have been hearing much about the need for a spiritual awakening. Let us encourage this awakening and believe in it. Even those physical scientists who perfected the atom bomb agree that spiritual power alone can control it, and we may find comfort in the thought that it would have been impossible for the minds of men to have produced such a bomb, without also possessing the inherent power to control its development.

Good can be just as contagious as evil. WE can be the carriers of good, never forgetting that "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." WE can be the alarm clocks for the awakening of free men everywhere.

Sincerely,

IRENE WHITAKER.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

Who's Who on Our Program

MARY GARDEN

The most famous opera star of this century — the creator of "Salome", "Thais", "Melisande" has returned to America as Mary Garden and scored the greatest triumph of her career. She peoples the stage with friends. She says exactly what she thinks of friend and foe. Press and public alike agreed that no other woman today is so exciting, dynamic and glamorous. A legend in her own time, Mary Garden is one of the immortals.

WILLIAM E. SKADDEN

Lecturer — Writer — Humorist — Philosopher — Radio Commentator. Until recently Executive Secretary of Illinois Welfare Association. One of the country's most versatile speakers. Among his many other experiences and assignments he is Relief Chaplain in both the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives; Marital Relations Counselor; Radio Commentator, doing his famous column of the air "Talespin" at Chanute Field during the war.

GEORGE McCARTY

Listed in Who's Who on the American Platform; the International Platform Association's Blue Book of Personalities; a member of the Speaker's Bureau of the American Association of the United Nations. Soldier in World War I, Traveler in America and abroad, George McCarty has had an interesting background in training and experience. At present he is Professor of Speech at Indiana State College. National recognition of his leadership came with his appointment as Editor of the Forensic and by his election to the National Presidency of Pi Kappa Delta. His philosophy on the problems of peace and war, is not only inspirational, instilled with a quiet forcefulness, but compels attention and thinking.

DR. BERNARD IDDINGS BELL

Dr. Bell holds doctor's degrees from Columbia, Colorado and the University of the South, but the one he values most is a Doctor of Pedagogy degree from the State Education Department of New York, awarded for a brilliant administration of St. Stephen's, a college noted as being twenty years ahead of its times. With over thirty-five years experience behind him as a philosopher and school man, Dr. Bell is a consultant widely used by schools, colleges and parents, in problems relating to education and religion. He is Honorary Canon of the Episcopal Cathedral in Chicago, a cathedral with no building, made up entirely of scholars. Dr. Bell is the author of eighteen books. He has contributed twenty-one articles to the Atlantic Monthly and written for Harper's, Collier's, The New York Times, The Criterion, Scribner's and other magazines.

MILDRED I. REID

The author of the novel "The Devil's Handmaidens" and great-grand niece of the Brothers Grimm of fairy tale fame, carries on the tradition of story telling in that famous family. She is a literary critic and lecturer whose six test books on creative writing are used by many universities. She has written numerous short stories, column's, poems, articles, plays and has directed radio dramas for five years on the air in Boston and New York City. Two of Miss Reid's textbooks were transcribed into Braille.

ERNESTA DRINKER BARLOW

Philadelphia born, Mrs. Barlow is the daughter of Dr. Henry S. Drinker, distinguished former President of Lehigh University. She came to know intimately many eminent scholars, artists and socialites in her father's home. Traveling yearly abroad with her famous family, she developed an exceptional knowledge of Japan, China, Egypt, Greece and Europe, speaking many languages as well. As the wife of William C. Bullitt, former Ambassador to Russia, she became famous as one of the most prominent hostesses in international circles. Later as a business woman she earned an international name for herself in the world of interior decorating, but when World War II hurled itself on a shocked and incredulous world, she threw her entire energies into the Allied cause. It was she who wrote, edited and voiced the famous radio program, "Commando Mary", which remained on the air for a record of two years and nine months over N.B.C. Now vital, distinctive, aristocratic, Ernesta Drinker Barlow brings to her audiences inspiration and practical suggestions for more useful and constructive living in government and how one goes about achieving constructive ends.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT JR.

World-famed Author, Photographer, Globe-Trotter, Soldier of Fortune — is a dynamic speaker with a name known around the world. Neil sailed the seven seas aboard his family's yacht getting his education from private tutors. He later worked his way out of the ballroom and left his "Newport Home for America." He has since shown courage through his spectacular career as a newspaperman, author of fourteen books, many magazine articles, motion picture scenarios and radio scripts. As a journalist he has met all the world leaders. Each year he crosses the Atlantic to make a new survey of post-war Europe to bring back facts and new pictures on what's happening to England's picturesque estates and country houses and what about her socialized farming, mining, textile mills, etc., the new Germany rising out of the ruins, France, Italy, Holland and Belgium in a new appraisal with his excellent up-to-the-minute color movies.

Author: "Our Future in Asia", "Your Foreign Policy", "Divided India", and articles in many leading magazines. His vast experiences, as well as his native astuteness, give him vast insight into the complex psychological, political and national situations.

BETTY ROADMAN

Actress — Author — Lecturer — Impersonator, one of the best loved lectures and entertainers on the platform today. She has a subtle art which is so completely natural that it seems not to be art at all — therein lies her real artistry. Recently she toured America with Charlotte Greenwood playing one of the Norwegian-American Sisters in "I Remember Mamma". Immediately following the end of the war she spent seven months in the Pacific Islands with an entertainment unit of New York taking a touch of home and mother to thousands of service men stationed on those bleak coral rocks. Now, wielding no verbal daggers at policies, ignoring just for a moment the iron curtain, she escorts an audience through a Pacific Hell to an understanding of what constitutes an invulnerable bulwark of democracy — the American Family.

JOHN C. CALDWELL

Born in China of American Missionary parents, Mr. Caldwell has spent most of his life in the Orient. During World War II he was sent behind the Jap lines in China by the Office of War Information. He was later sent to Korea to establish the U. S. Information Center. He was special consultant for the Department of the Army on Korean Problems and Former Attache at the U. S. Embassy in Seoul. John Caldwell knows the Far East, speaks Chinese and Korean and knows the Oriental mind. He has a wealth of information, both personal and official and speaks with unhesitating authority.

FRANC AND JEAN SHOR

This young American couple, hitch-hiking across the Gobi Desert, decided to follow Marco Polo's footsteps from Venice to China. They did it with the aid of kings and camel-drivers, in a trip that took them through Italy, Israel, Cyprus, Turkey, Persia, Afganistan, Chinese Turkestan, Hunza and Pakistan.

They crossed the Hindu Kush, the Karakoram, and the High Pamirs. They rode trucks, camels, horses, yaks and the private airplane of the Shah of Iran, with the Shah as their pilot! They met people and saw country where no foreigner has been before them and they saw the inside of half the jails of Iran. They drank champagne with ambassadors, tea with kings, mare's milk with Kirghiz tribesmen. And they found a tiny Shangri-la, high in the mountains of Central Asia, where there are no laws, no jails, no crime, no taxes, no money, no army and nobody with ulcers. People are their hobby, and they have met them all.

GEORGE D. GAW

George D. Gaw, President of Color Analysis and Design Evaluation, is a recognized authority in the field of color research. He has conducted experiments with color effect on human behavior over a period of more than twenty-five years.

Colonel Gaw has put color to many uses, and was a pioneer in introducing its use in Industrial Plants, Industrial Products, Package Advertising and in all Public relations.

Colonel Gaw's addresses are noted for their dynamic delivery and homespun character. His talks on color are not of the technical kind. He brings scientific color information down to the human interest sphere. He has a multitude of case histories of color power which he tells in a most candid and entertaining way.

Officers' Reports

The AMERICAN HOME DEPARTMENT held its opening tea on October 26. The Musical Arts Club furnished the program.

Our Annual Harvest Bridge was held November 21.

On January 20 we entertained our husbands and friends with a pot-luck dinner, dancing and cards.

The annual meeting and election of new officers was held March 6. A carry in luncheon and playlet was the highlight of the day.

The Department sponsored the general club program and luncheon on April 5. Mrs. Eleanor Sikes Peters reviewed for us "Contrasting Portraits". A white elephant card party in the afternoon concluded our year.

Our Christmas silver offering of $37.00 purchased food and brightened the lives of two blind ladies. We also furnished them with many necessary articles of clothing.

The Department purchased some needed utensils for our kitchen at the Club.

Twenty-five new members were enrolled during the year.

BETTY GREGORY, Chairman.

FEDERATION REPORT—The annual Federation Day Breakfast was attended by two hundred and twenty-five (225) guests on November 9th.

State officers were honored and Mrs. W. B. Fowler, chairman of Federated Clubs, was our guest speaker.

During the year we cooperated in the following Federation Projects:

Penny Art Fund, National Heart Drive, Musical Pennies, and

Contributed yarn, dress material, needles and thread to the General Clay Fund.

A number of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club members attended the work shop meetings at Indianapolis and several were delegates to the convention at Indianapolis in May.

Mrs. Whitaker, our president, and Mrs. Margraf represented our Club at Federation conventions in Indianapolis and Houston, Texas.

EMMA WEFEL, Chairman.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT—The opening meeting of the Book and Travel Department was held on November 2, with a Travel talk by Mrs. Harry Hogan. Since there would be no meeting in December, the silver offering for the Christmas Bureau was taken and $20.00 was received for our project.

On February 8 we sponsored Ann Birk Kuper, who read "Peter Pan". In the afternoon a bridge party was held.

Mrs. Robert Whitaker gave the program at our March 15th meeting, and our election of officers and final reports were given at the luncheon bridge on April 17.

During the year, six new members were added to our group, and there were four resignations.

RUTH S. BRANT, Chairman.

Annual Report of the Recording Secretary

May 10, 1951

In our President's message for the year she says "too much reminiscing is a hindrance to advancement." The 26th year of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club ends today, May 10, 1951, with our Annual May Breakfast, and it is my duty and privilege to report the advancement we have made during the year under the capable guidance of Mrs. Whitaker, who issued the above statement. I am sure we shall all agree there was little time for reminiscence.

Mrs. Parry and her decorating committee added to our pleasure of opening our year with a newly decorated dining room so that each week we lunch together in an atmosphere of historic old Williamsburg. On special occasions we grace our table with a beautiful silver punch bowl which was a gift of Mrs. Charles Buesching, and under the able direction of Mrs. Kent, the house committee also secured a glistening antique punch bowl for the club. In addition to this, the house committee added eighteen new table cloths, kitchen equipment, canasta sets and playing cards. What a wonderful start!

The business of the club was transacted at one called and eight regular meetings of the board of directors. During the course of these meetings two revisions of the constitution were passed—Articles X, Section 1 and Article XIV, Section 7.

The Board of Trustees held two regular and four called meetings during the year. At the end of the year they found the financial condition of the club to be very satisfactory. For the coming year Mrs. Edward Young will chair this group and Mrs. Edward Schlegel will act as secretary.

Our Thursday morning programs were varied, giving us literary programs, travelogues, problems of the post war world, drama and wit. We heard from our foes of democracy through an ex-spy, a Foreign Minister of Finance in an Communist occupied country, and radio commentators. And, we must not forget our own talent. The Drama Group, through the efforts of Mrs. Van Horn, gave the entertainment for two of our General Club Programs. The Choral Group, under the direction of Mrs. David Gerig, gave three programs throughout the year. As one can readily see advancement was achieved and certainly a stimulus to our thinking in these well-planned programs. Mrs. Margraf, even though she had financial problems and a few cancellations, gave us an outstanding year.

The Departments of the club also participated in our programs with each sponsoring a day with its choice of speaker and usually this was followed by a luncheon and bridge or other entertainment in the afternoon. There were some departments who wanted to share pleasures with their husbands such as the American Home Eventide Dinner Party, Fine Arts Sweetheart Party, Literature and Education Department's Smorgasbord, House and Garden Dinner Party for Husbands, and the Civic and Welfare Candlelight Dinner. All of these are in addition to the Annual Christmas Ball.

Three very fine art exhibits were furnished by the Fine Arts Department and added beauty to our auditorium. These were from Mrs. Paul Stonecifer, The Faculty of the Art School, and Lambda Chapter of Sigma Eta Sorority.

Our President, Mrs. Whitaker, has represented us at the National Federation convention held in Boston, and also the State Federation convention held in Indianapolis. From time to time much has been profited by all of us through such contacts.

The projects committee made it possible for the club to fulfill a commitment of $630.00 for an oxygen tent for Park View Memorial Hospital. One thousand and sixty-four garments were donated to the Needlework Guild. In addition to these general club projects, all departments had their own philanthropic projects. They included aid to two blind women, contributions to the Civic Theater, Philharmonic Orchestra, Red Cross, Tuberculosis Society, Visiting Nurse League, and student loan fund, yarn was sent to Switzerland, toys were collected for Allen County Childrens' Home, and money was raised for milk for children of needy families and West Side Neighborhood Center, also a scholarship was given to the Art School. Not only was the spirit of giving demonstrated in these material things but our members gave of their time and effort helping with the Cancer, Polio, Heart, and Red Cross Drives. Surely the higher goals about which Mrs. Whitaker spoke in her opening message were fully attained. As Confucius said:

"No virtue is higher than love to all men,
And there is no loftier aim in life
Than to do good to all men."

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA HUNTER, Recording Secretary.
